To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

This email was sent to .

Great Barrington, MA | 01230 US
84 Alford Road

Got this as a forward?

Manage

Share this email:

Weekend during the month of February. Special promotional prices, if you book your reservation for Commencement/Alumni Reunion Weekend. Additionally, Red Lion Inn in Stockbridge and Briarcliff Motel in Great Barrington are offering weekend accommodations (housing will not be available on-campus).

For Commencement/Alumni Reunion Weekend, Simon’s Rock has partnered with Fairfield Inn in Great Barrington to offer a block of rooms for a limited-time discount on overnight and weekend accommodations for families and alumni. In the meantime, save the date!

Shelburne Falls, MA | 01363 US
168 Bridge Street

In Memoriam

The Souls of Black Folk, as a literary work, has become a source of inspiration and education for generations. Its legacy continues to be felt through various platforms, such as documentaries, educational programs, and literary events. The Souls of Black Folk is a testament to the resilience and strength of the African American community, and its impact on the world cannot be overstated.

College to Host Dance Performance for W.E.B. Du Bois Birthday Celebration

On February 20, 2020, the campus will host a special dance performance to commemorate the birthday of W.E.B. Du Bois, one of the most influential scholars of his time. The performance, which will include a variety of dance styles, will be held at the School of Fine and Performing Arts, and is open to the public.

Youth Summer Programs

Simon’s Rock offers a range of summer programs designed to engage and inspire students in middle school and older. These programs are a wonderful way to introduce a future Rocker to the Simon’s Rock experience. Wehry, Assistant Director, Annual Fund at Simon’s Rock.

This year, Simon’s Rock is offering an expanded list of summer programs for middle school and older. These programs are a wonderful way to introduce a future Rocker to the Simon’s Rock experience. Wehry, Assistant Director, Annual Fund at Simon’s Rock.

In Memoriam

Sarena Martinez ’12 Named Rhodes Scholar

Sarena Martinez, a Simon’s Rock alumna, has been named a Rhodes Scholar. She joins Ronan Farrow ’99 as Simon’s Rock’s second Rhodes Scholar. Martinez will begin studies in Oxford, England next October, where she plans to pursue a Master of Public Policy. Sarena was named a Rhodes Scholar by the Rhodes Scholarship Committee of the University of Oxford.

Simmons Rock alumna Sarena Martinez was named a Rhodes Scholar last year. She is one of only two American college students, and the first Berkshires student, to receive this honor.

Berkshire County.

For alumni, the weekend will kick off Friday night, May 15, with a reunion mixer in southern Berkshire County. Combined events will gather the whole Simon’s Rock community of new graduates and their families, faculty, staff, alumni, and friends.

Save the Date for Commencement/Alumni Reunion Weekend, May 15–17

Regents of Bard College in partnership with Jacob’s Pillow and the NAACP Berkshire County Branch. Great Barrington’s annual celebration of his birth. The performance is co-sponsored by the Town of Great Barrington and the Berkshires.”

Read More

Berkshire County.

In this letter, Commencement Planning Committee Chair, Halley, expressed his excitement for the upcoming event and urged students and their families to mark their calendars. He also mentioned that a variety of events will take place throughout the weekend, including a reunion mixer, special events, and a celebratory reception.

Thank you for your recent support!

Wehry, Assistant Director, Annual Fund at Simon’s Rock.

In time for Commencement planning, the Office of Institutional Advancement invites families and alumni to consider whether they wish to start or continue their support for Simon’s Rock with a donation. All donations are tax-deductible to the fullest extent allowed by law.

On Saturday, May 16, alumni are invited to hear keynote speaker and part-time faculty member, Owen D. “Corky” Shultis, speak on a topic of his choosing. This year, Corky will discuss his life and experiences as a long-time employee and friend of Simon’s Rock.

Learn more about annual giving.

Save the Date! For Commencement/Alumni Reunion Weekend, May 15–17, our first since 1994! These combined events are a wonderful way to introduce a future Rocker to the Simon’s Rock experience. Weekly features include details about Reunion activities, and alumni and friends can expect more information in the coming weeks about Commencement, and alumni will be invited to join us for the celebration.

Center for Community Engagement.

Simon’s Rock alumni, faculty, students, and friends are invited to the College’s 40th anniversary celebration of its founding on Saturday, May 16, and Sunday, May 17.

See More

College to Hold Dance Performance for W.E.B. Du Bois Birthday Celebration

On February 20, 2020, the campus will host a special dance performance to commemorate the birthday of W.E.B. Du Bois, one of the most influential scholars of his time. The performance, which will include a variety of dance styles, will be held at the School of Fine and Performing Arts, and is open to the public.

Simmons Rock alumna Sarena Martinez was named a Rhodes Scholar last year. She is one of only two American college students, and the first Berkshires student, to receive this honor.

In Memoriam

Sarena Martinez ’12 Named Rhodes Scholar

Sarena Martinez, a Simon’s Rock alumna, has been named a Rhodes Scholar. She joins Ronan Farrow ’99 as Simon’s Rock’s second Rhodes Scholar. Martinez will begin studies in Oxford, England next October, where she plans to pursue a Master of Public Policy. Sarena was named a Rhodes Scholar by the Rhodes Scholarship Committee of the University of Oxford.

Simmons Rock alumna Sarena Martinez was named a Rhodes Scholar last year. She is one of only two American college students, and the first Berkshires student, to receive this honor.

The Souls of Black Folk, as a literary work, has become a source of inspiration and education for generations. Its legacy continues to be felt through various platforms, such as documentaries, educational programs, and literary events. The Souls of Black Folk is a testament to the resilience and strength of the African American community, and its impact on the world cannot be overstated.

College to Hold Dance Performance for W.E.B. Du Bois Birthday Celebration

On February 20, 2020, the campus will host a special dance performance to commemorate the birthday of W.E.B. Du Bois, one of the most influential scholars of his time. The performance, which will include a variety of dance styles, will be held at the School of Fine and Performing Arts, and is open to the public.

Simmons Rock alumna Sarena Martinez was named a Rhodes Scholar last year. She is one of only two American college students, and the first Berkshires student, to receive this honor.

In Memoriam

Sarena Martinez ’12 Named Rhodes Scholar

Sarena Martinez, a Simon’s Rock alumna, has been named a Rhodes Scholar. She joins Ronan Farrow ’99 as Simon’s Rock’s second Rhodes Scholar. Martinez will begin studies in Oxford, England next October, where she plans to pursue a Master of Public Policy. Sarena was named a Rhodes Scholar by the Rhodes Scholarship Committee of the University of Oxford.

Simmons Rock alumna Sarena Martinez was named a Rhodes Scholar last year. She is one of only two American college students, and the first Berkshires student, to receive this honor.

The Souls of Black Folk, as a literary work, has become a source of inspiration and education for generations. Its legacy continues to be felt through various platforms, such as documentaries, educational programs, and literary events. The Souls of Black Folk is a testament to the resilience and strength of the African American community, and its impact on the world cannot be overstated.

College to Hold Dance Performance for W.E.B. Du Bois Birthday Celebration

On February 20, 2020, the campus will host a special dance performance to commemorate the birthday of W.E.B. Du Bois, one of the most influential scholars of his time. The performance, which will include a variety of dance styles, will be held at the School of Fine and Performing Arts, and is open to the public.

Simmons Rock alumna Sarena Martinez was named a Rhodes Scholar last year. She is one of only two American college students, and the first Berkshires student, to receive this honor.

In Memoriam

Sarena Martinez ’12 Named Rhodes Scholar

Sarena Martinez, a Simon’s Rock alumna, has been named a Rhodes Scholar. She joins Ronan Farrow ’99 as Simon’s Rock’s second Rhodes Scholar. Martinez will begin studies in Oxford, England next October, where she plans to pursue a Master of Public Policy. Sarena was named a Rhodes Scholar by the Rhodes Scholarship Committee of the University of Oxford.

Simmons Rock alumna Sarena Martinez was named a Rhodes Scholar last year. She is one of only two American college students, and the first Berkshires student, to receive this honor.

The Souls of Black Folk, as a literary work, has become a source of inspiration and education for generations. Its legacy continues to be felt through various platforms, such as documentaries, educational programs, and literary events. The Souls of Black Folk is a testament to the resilience and strength of the African American community, and its impact on the world cannot be overstated.

College to Hold Dance Performance for W.E.B. Du Bois Birthday Celebration

On February 20, 2020, the campus will host a special dance performance to commemorate the birthday of W.E.B. Du Bois, one of the most influential scholars of his time. The performance, which will include a variety of dance styles, will be held at the School of Fine and Performing Arts, and is open to the public.

Simmons Rock alumna Sarena Martinez was named a Rhodes Scholar last year. She is one of only two American college students, and the first Berkshires student, to receive this honor.

In Memoriam

Sarena Martinez ’12 Named Rhodes Scholar

Sarena Martinez, a Simon’s Rock alumna, has been named a Rhodes Scholar. She joins Ronan Farrow ’99 as Simon’s Rock’s second Rhodes Scholar. Martinez will begin studies in Oxford, England next October, where she plans to pursue a Master of Public Policy. Sarena was named a Rhodes Scholar by the Rhodes Scholarship Committee of the University of Oxford.

Simmons Rock alumna Sarena Martinez was named a Rhodes Scholar last year. She is one of only two American college students, and the first Berkshires student, to receive this honor.

The Souls of Black Folk, as a literary work, has become a source of inspiration and education for generations. Its legacy continues to be felt through various platforms, such as documentaries, educational programs, and literary events. The Souls of Black Folk is a testament to the resilience and strength of the African American community, and its impact on the world cannot be overstated.