To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

Great Barrington, MA | 01230 US
84 Alford Road

View this email
Got this as a forward?
Manage

Share this email:

Rock, 84 Alford Road, Great Barrington, MA 01230, 413-644-4776.
or contact Cathryn Harding, Director of Institutional Advancement, Bard College at Simon's Rock.

We're excited to introduce our Book One program — Invisible: 2019’s Book One.

For a limited time, we'll honor each new $5000 donation to the Fund for Simon's Rock with an engraved brick on the Mods patio. Limit 88 characters (4 lines / 22 characters each).

Now is the moment to support Simon's Rock from the ground up.

Your Gift Makes a Difference
Learn More

Dance Festival in Durham, NC.

understood to the world around us. The film recently screened at the prestigious American Dance Festival.

Max Hiatt '17 on an experimental film that explores the exhaustive nature of society's demands on the self. Their point? We are continuously at work to make ourselves known to the world. The Mods were full, the ARC was alive through Saturday afternoon even as rain threatened to dampen the spirit.

Scores of alumni turned Music Bingo into a sing-along on Friday night and kept the spirit alive through Saturday afternoon even as rain threatened to dampen the spirit.

Imagine a More Just World
Commencement Speakers

At the 2019 Commencement on May 18, 166 students were awarded bachelor's degrees, and many gathered in the ARC and the Mods to celebrate graduation.

In a special presentation, Provost Ian Bickford addressed the audience on the value of learning and leadership, and the importance of having a strong purpose.

Invisible: The Forgotten Story of the Black Woman Lawyer

Peter Filkins Chronicles H.G. Adler

In H.G. Adler: A Life in Many Worlds, Faculty member Peter Filkins presents the first thorough examination of Adler’s life and legacy.

Edward "Ted" Siedle '72 was awarded an Investigator, who recently won the largest whistleblower award in the history of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Imagine a More Just World
Commencement Speakers

At the 2019 Commencement on May 18, 166 students were awarded bachelor's degrees, and many gathered in the ARC and the Mods to celebrate graduation.

In a special presentation, Provost Ian Bickford addressed the audience on the value of learning and leadership, and the importance of having a strong purpose.

Invisible: The Forgotten Story of the Black Woman Lawyer

Peter Filkins Chronicles H.G. Adler

In H.G. Adler: A Life in Many Worlds, Faculty member Peter Filkins presents the first thorough examination of Adler’s life and legacy.

Edward "Ted" Siedle '72 was awarded an Investigator, who recently won the largest whistleblower award in the history of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Imagine a More Just World
Commencement Speakers

At the 2019 Commencement on May 18, 166 students were awarded bachelor's degrees, and many gathered in the ARC and the Mods to celebrate graduation.

In a special presentation, Provost Ian Bickford addressed the audience on the value of learning and leadership, and the importance of having a strong purpose.

Invisible: The Forgotten Story of the Black Woman Lawyer

Peter Filkins Chronicles H.G. Adler

In H.G. Adler: A Life in Many Worlds, Faculty member Peter Filkins presents the first thorough examination of Adler’s life and legacy.

Edward "Ted" Siedle '72 was awarded an Investigator, who recently won the largest whistleblower award in the history of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Imagine a More Just World
Commencement Speakers

At the 2019 Commencement on May 18, 166 students were awarded bachelor's degrees, and many gathered in the ARC and the Mods to celebrate graduation.

In a special presentation, Provost Ian Bickford addressed the audience on the value of learning and leadership, and the importance of having a strong purpose.

Invisible: The Forgotten Story of the Black Woman Lawyer

Peter Filkins Chronicles H.G. Adler

In H.G. Adler: A Life in Many Worlds, Faculty member Peter Filkins presents the first thorough examination of Adler’s life and legacy.

Edward "Ted" Siedle '72 was awarded an Investigator, who recently won the largest whistleblower award in the history of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Imagine a More Just World
Commencement Speakers

At the 2019 Commencement on May 18, 166 students were award...